He picked up a broom to sweep it way, when he noticed that something f a pink color gleamed from its very entre. Astonished at this, he seized hatchet, and broke the piece of ice, when he was still more astonished to see a rose—a full blown rose—drop from between the cracked particles.

The flower, which was in a perfect state of preservation, was discovered to be a monthly rose; but when or how it came to be frozen in an ice-berg is a mystery which still remains unsolved, although it is believed that the rose was dropped into the sea by Captain Wakeman of the Rochet, which vessel visited the Arctic twenty years ago.

Captain Wakeman, who was very fond of flowers, especially of roses, carried away with him, when he sailed from New London, a couple of monthly roses, presented to him by his wife. Stoven by ice during a furious role. rious gale, the Rochet went down with all on board on the night of the 10th of July, 1819. One of the roses must then have become wedged in a crevice between the ice, when the water, freezing around it, inclosed it in a crystal prison.

WELL ANSWERED .- Au old maid, somewhat advanced in years, whose vivacity approached the borders of impertinence, asked an old man, in rather a jeering tone, why he was always dressed in black, and what he wore mourning for?

"For your charms, miss," he gallantly replied.

Dr. E. H. Heinitsh.

DEAR SIR: Upon the recommendation of a friend, I purchased a bottle of your QUEEN'S DELIGHT, and took it for Chills and Fever. I report to you a complete cure of my case. I bave been living on Big Lake, where the Chills and Fever prevail, as an epidemic. I have escaped them entirely, after taking your valuable mixture. I can recommend its general use, in cases of Debility, and in Derangement of the Liver and Stomach. It is a valuable medicine. Yours respectfully.

J. J. DOUGLASS.

LANCASTER, Penn., Sept. 25, 1867.

Mr. E. H. Heinitsh.

DEAR SIR: The bottle of QUEEN'S DE-LIGHT which I bought from your agent in Lancaster, Pennsylvania, has given meentire satisfaction. I have been a dyspeptic for many years, and never found relief from an attack, except by traveling. A change of climate and diet always improved my health, but this made it necessary to travel. Your QUEEN'S DELIGHT does away with this expensive process. No medicine ever before produced so good an effect after using one bottle. I am almost entirely relieved of pain. My bowels are regular. I experience no nausea, and am improving in health. The QUEEN'S DELIGHT is certainly the best medicine I have evertaken. I will recommend its use. Yours respectfully,

JAMES F. DOUNEY.
